Hoosier Leadership Program

The philosophy of the SLL Hoosier Leadership Program is adapted from President Herman B Wells Coat of Arms and the Indiana University motto Lux Et Veritas "light and truth. "Following this philosophy, Student Life and Learning co-constructed a set of high impact leadership experiences for, and with, IU students. Collectively known as the Hoosier Leadership Program, these three levels of involvement offer student's experiential learning which parallels academic course work. The program is based on a philosophy of non-positional leadership and a process of exploring values, honing leadership skills, and becoming an inclusive leader. The Hoosier Leadership Program prides itself on being open and available to all IUB students at any level in their collegiate career.

The 2017-2018 Hoosier Leadership Program Includes:

- Hoosier First Year Leadership Orientation
- Hoosier Emerging Leaders Retreat
- Hoosier LeaderShape Institute®

LEAD IU courses are offered through the School of Education and are open to all students. Classes are offered during the Fall and Spring semesters.
